At the appropriate place in the bill, insert the following:

(4) HONG KONG.—

(A) DEMOCRACY PROGRAMS.—Of the funds appropriated by this Act under the heading “Democracy Fund” for the Human Rights and Democracy Fund of the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor, Department of State, not less than $1,500,000 shall be made available for democracy programs for Hong Kong, including legal and other support for democracy activists.

(B) REPORT.—Funds appropriated under title I of this Act shall be made available to prepare and submit to Congress the report required by section 301 of the United States-Hong Kong Policy Act of 1992 (22 U.S.C. 5731), which shall also include a description of—

(i) efforts by the Hong Kong authorities and the Government of the People’s Republic of China to prevent free assembly and communications by the people of Hong Kong;

(ii) the technical surveillance equipment and methods used by the Hong Kong authorities and the Government of the People’s Republic of China to monitor the movement and communications of the Hong Kong population;

(iii) the application of social and political control tools developed by the Government of the People’s Republic of China and used by such Government and the Hong Kong authorities in Hong Kong;

(iv) the disinformation and political influence campaigns conducted by the Government of the People’s Republic of China in Hong Kong and overseas with respect to the situation in Hong Kong; and

(v) the mission and activities of the People’s Armed Police, the People’s Liberation Army, the Ministries of Public Security and State Security in Beijing, the Government of the People’s Republic of China, and other Chinese security forces in Hong Kong, including their respective roles in human rights abuses against the people of Hong Kong.

At the appropriate place in report, insert the following:

Hong Kong.—The Committee recommends not less than $1,500,000 for democracy programs for Hong Kong.

Creeping Influence of the People's Republic of China.—The Committee recognizes the efforts of the people of Hong Kong to thwart the creeping influence of the PRC in their affairs, including the proposed amendments to the Fugitive Offenders Ordinance that would permit the extradition of alleged criminals to mainland China. The Committee urges the PRC to cease the “mainlandization” of Hong Kong and to fully abide by its commitments in the Joint Declaration to allow the people of Hong Kong “a high degree of autonomy” to govern Hong Kong.

Reporting Requirement.—In addition to updating the issues described under the heading “Hong Kong” in section 7043 of Senate Report 115-282, subsection (f)(4) requires the Secretary of State to include additional information in the annual report required under section 301 of the United States-Hong Kong Policy Act of 1992 (22 U.S.C. 5731).

At the appropriate place in the Economic Support Fund table, insert the following:

of which, Hong Kong....1,500

Attribution.—Funds made available under this heading are not intended for attribution to other sector or program directives included in the act or in this report.

Biodiversity.—The Committee recommends not less than $43,000,000 for the Central Africa Regional Program for the Environment [CARPE], of which $23,400,000 is for USAID programs and $19,600,000 is to be provided to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service [USFWS] pursuant to section 632(b) of the FAA.

The Committee recommends not less than $17,000,000 for biodiversity conservation programs in the Andean Amazon and not less than $15,000,000 for such programs in the Brazilian Amazon.

The Committee recommends not less than $7,000,000 for the U.S. Forest Service [USFS] by direct transfer for programs to protect wildlife, biodiversity, and forests in addition to funds otherwise available for USFS through USAID missions, including for programs related to the restoration of forests and landscapes of degraded ecosystems. The Committee recommends not less than $5,000,000 for the USFWS by direct transfer for international conservation programs including the Multinational Species Conservation Funds.

The Committee recommends not less than $5,000,000 for tropical forest conservation in Guatemala and Belize and the preservation of archeological sites in the Maya Biosphere Reserve [MBR], of which not less than $1,500,000 shall be provided to the Department of the Interior [DoI] by direct transfer. The Committee does not support funding for logging activities or the construction of roads in national parks or the MBR, except for community forest concessions in the MBR and temporary road construction in support of such concessions.

The Committee recommends continued funding for wildlife conservation activities in South Sudan.

The Committee recommends not less than $3,500,000 for implementation of the Lacey Act.

Endangered Species.—The Committee recommends not less than $10,000,000 for programs to protect great apes in Central Africa and Indonesia, to include forest habitat conservation and law enforcement to prevent poaching, of which not less than $5,000,000 shall be provided to the USFWS by direct transfer, which is in addition to other funds provided for the USFWS in the act.

Habitat Protection.—The Committee recommends not less than $1,000,000 for programs in Central and South America to protect the habitat of migratory birds along the Atlantic flyway, not less than $500,000 to protect the habitat of migratory birds along the Pacific flyway, and not less than $150,000 to support turtle-safe artisanal fishing methods, protect nesting beaches, and police against blast fishing. Funds are to be provide directly to the USFWS for flyways and to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration [NOAA] for sea turtles.

Illegal, Unreported, and Unregulated Fishing.—The Committee is increasingly concerned with illegal, unreported, and unregulated fishing which undermines sustainable fisheries management, the stability of coastal communities, and food security. USAID shall support efforts to build the capacity of countries to comply with seafood import monitoring programs and promote adoption of sustainable fisheries management regimes. The Bureau of Economic Growth, Education, and Environment and the Bureau of Food Security, or any successor bureaus, are directed to work together to address the fundamental system failures that allow for illegal, unreported, and unregulated fishing to persist, jeopardizing economic, environmental, and food security objectives, including through new or expanded initiatives undertaken by the Bureau of Food Security.

Large Dams.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall apply the Department of the Treasury's due diligence process when evaluating a proposal by an international financial institution [IFI] to finance construction of a large dam, including reviewing for full compliance with IFI policies and legislative voting mandates, as well as consider the dam policies of relevant Federal agencies, the Hydropower Sustainability Assessment Protocol, and other sources of hydropower and environmental expertise. The U.S. executive director of such IFI may vote to support such a project only if the Secretary, after consulting with the Secretary of State, USAID Administrator, and other technical personnel, as appropriate, determines that the IFI is taking the necessary steps to meet the safeguards enumerated under this heading in Senate Report 114–79.

Ocean Plastic Pollution.—The Committee recognizes the increasing global threat to public health, wildlife, and the environment from ocean plastic pollution. The Committee directs the Department of State and USAID to redouble their diplomatic and programmatic support for regional and global efforts to address this urgent problem, including through grants, technical assistance, and new multilateral mechanisms, and to consult with the Committee about funding plans not later than 45 days after enactment of the act. The Committee recommends not less than $10,000,000 for this purpose.

Strategies.—Not later than 90 days after enactment of the act, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the USAID Administrator and the heads of other relevant Federal agencies, shall submit to the Committee the U.S. Government strategy for each of the following, detailing efforts made and funds expended in fiscal years 2017 and 2018, and planned to be made and expended in fiscal years 2019 and 2020 to implement the strategy, disaggregated by Federal agency and country, to: (1) assist less developed countries in reducing plastic waste that pollutes oceans, lakes, and rivers; (2) protect forests and biodiversity in the Amazon Basin; and (3) assist less developed countries adapt to, and mitigate the effects of, climate change. Each strategy shall also detail cooperation between the U.S. Government and other developed and less developed countries.

Toxic Chemicals.—The Committee recommends not less than $10,000,000 to address toxic chemical pollution in Africa, Asia, and Latin America, including through lead acid battery recycling programs. The Committee is aware that polluted air, water, and soil are a significant cause of death globally. Not later than 60 days after enactment of the act, USAID and the Department of State, as appropriate, shall consult with the Committee on the uses of such funds.

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, U.S. Forest Service, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and the Department of the Interior.—With the exception of funds provided for CARPE, funds provided by direct transfer to the USFWS, USFS, NOAA, and DoI shall be transferred pursuant to section 632(a) of the FAA not later than 90 days after enactment of the act, and prior to the expenditure of funds the USFWS, USFS, NOAA, and DoI shall submit spend plans to the Committee and USAID detailing the intended uses of such funds. Prior to the submission of spend plans, such agencies shall consult on the intended uses of funds with USAID, as appropriate.
