21 tion 640 of such Act, of which $284,482,375 shall be 22 available for a cost of living adjustment notwithstanding
23 section 640(a)(3)(A): Provided further, That of such funds
24 provided, notwithstanding such section 640,
25 $1,078,000,000 (of which up to one percent may be re-

1 served for research and evaluation) shall be allocated by 2 the Secretary to supplement funding available to increase
3 the hours of program operations to no less than 6 hours
4 per day and no less than 170 days per year and for train-
5 ing and technical assistance for such activities: Provided
6 further, That notwithstanding such section 640, of the 7 funds provided for making payments under the Head
8 Start Act, and in addition to funds otherwise available 9 under such section 640, $50,000,000 shall be available for 10 Early Head Start programs as described in section 645A
11 of such Act, for conversion of Head Start services to Early 12 Head Start services as described in section 645(a)(5)(A)
